

The 2025 Summer Reunion featuring

“The Littles” by Kathy Nicolls

Fall 2025

I borrowed this word from my oldest CRN family nephew, James. I find it very appropriate. After a few summers of what seemed like mostly senior reunions, the littles took over again this year! We had an abundance of kiddos 3 and under, assuring the Nicolls family tree will go on.

Additionally, we were so glad to have the not so little, Mack and Martin kids back after being MIA for quite a few years. (Although they did not make me art projects this year!)

The Chicago K kids diligently avoided my camera, with their early risings and early bedtimes, but they made their presence known during the daylight hours, and were adored by all. I did manage to sneak one picture of Hillary telling them to go to bed, while Jonathan looked on.

Keep those kiddos coming to Colorado. We love you all, young and... senior. 🥰

While Jonathan looked on

Hillary and her cubs

