1st Day—364 Days to Follow

New Year's Day

A bright sunshiny day. I hope it is a prophecy for the new year. Rather cold. We slept till nearly 10 a.m. Dad went to the store till 1:30. We put our gifts away & ran the sweeper and dusted. Ann came up about 2:30. Had her daire with her. We had dinner about 4:30 P.m. Dad & boys went bowling before then Ruth & Gene. Now I went to see Jack Benny in love thy neighbor.

Ruth Alameda's father died at 15012 Garrite.

Dusted cards with Ruth

Thursday, January 2, 1941

2nd Day—363 Days to Follow

Sorted recipes all morning & put them in new recipe box.

Baked donuts P.m. went to Annan's eve, over to Blackman's a few minutes. Home & played cards with kids.

Friday, January 3, 1941

3rd Day—362 Days to Follow

Took our tree out this morning. For some reason I hated very much to part with it this year. Cleaned the front room real good.

Took mother to market P.m. then went in to get Betty. She & I went to Annan funeral. It was a big one. Came home and baked pies. Don't feel so good. Have cold, I guess.

Saturday, January 4, 1941

4th Day—361 Days to Follow

Cleared. Jim so hoarse. I can hardly talk. Mary came down to thank me for her flowers. They came about noon. Pink rosebuds. She sent me down some of course. It's very cold today. Around 15° .
I went down home P.M.
we played cards eve.

Sunday, January 5, 1941

5th Day—360 Days to Follow

12' above this morning.
Dad got up + drove Gene around his paper route.
Blowing and snowing
some. Sometimes sun shines.

Worked on my
scrap books P.M.
Mary + Jack came down eve for a little
500. Jim still very hoarse.

Monday, January 6, 1941

6th Day—359 Days to Follow

Washed. Beety didn't work today. I didn't feel up to it. I'm in bed but laid around most of day. Gene is in bed with a cold. Guess it must be this "flu" germ. They have a cough like I've had & are so very weak.

Tuesday, January 7, 1941

7th Day—358 Days to Follow

Bob in bed with a cold today. So have 2 patients now. Dave & I went to canfield today at 8:30 a.m. and finally took his test at 11 a.m. I roned some p.m. Went to club at main's tonight. My cough and hoarseness still hang on and I'm so tired.

Got word that Jennie is getting along O.K. and no one else took test.

All of us but Hon
and Betty went to Coville to see B.B.
game. They lost badly. Art has sprained thumb
so didn't play much.
It was a beautiful moonlight night. We were home by midnight.

Wednesday, February 12, 1941

43rd Day—322 Days to Follow

This page wouldn't hold all that's happened today. I spent so much time with ^{painting} tickets for the Book Review and calling people about it that I didn't get much housework done. Ironed about an hour late afternoon.

Went to Sophia and Bertha's dinner party. we stopped at Ann's and dressed
"patriotically," hats, shoes & dress & paraded in.
Such a lovely party. The centerpiece was kindling for Cabin. ^{Favors were statuettes} etc. I won something Betty, a plaque.

Ann had me deeply taut.

Thursday, February 13, 1941

44th Day—321 Days to Follow

Still feel low this a.m. Betty may call to say she's having a party just before April and will go to Hart's there but — that's out now, I think. I went out delivering tickets this a.m. and after noon a while. Came home & ironed.

Finished this eve. Now stand home today. His one eye is badly inflamed. Has been all week, but didn't want to stay home.

Friday, February 14, 1941

Cold! we went to Washingtonville to L. & A's with Blackman for dinner & until midnight. Came home, weren't sleepy,
was' 2 a.m. before we got to sleep, and I wanted to get a fresh start on this Brey week.

Monday, February 17, 1941

48th Day—317 Days to Follow

Got the washing done by noon. It very cold, showy, icy, and windy. Mrs. Sidel took me as her guest to Garden Club P.M. It was very nice.

Owned some Eve.
Drove back to school.
Eye o.k.

Tuesday, February 18, 1941

49th Day—316 Days to Follow

Still very cold, around zero. Did phoning, etc., biggest part of the day for the B.P. tomorrow. Baked 2 batches of cookies. Did a bit of ironing. Went down home a few minutes. Went to work at Bers Jo. Home at 2:00 a.m. O, me!

Wednesday, February 19, 1941

50th Day—315 Days to Follow

Well, this has surely been a busy but very enjoyable day. First gall about 9 am & I went to Eric Kridler's
for a "galloping breakfast" funniest thing I've seen in years. Then we worked at the home till 11:30. Back at 1:30. we had 120 besides committee. & we were so pleased, and the book she reviewed was very good (no stone unturned for miles). Everyone seemed to think everything was very nice.
No hum. total very good.

Cancelled tonight. First she talked to her sister & then to her mother. I called her & she was very nice, very friendly.

Thursday, February 20, 1941

51st Day—314 Days to Follow

Dave staid in bed with acred today. Don't sick, just cold in head.

By the time I washed dishes, made Dad's birthday cake,
doctored Dave up,
& talked on the phone
some it was soon.
after lunch & dishes were done I went to town. Got Dad
a Baby Biew & peanuts. went down home a while after. Dave came down for supper. Dad's 41.
Played 500 a little while then I turned till 11

Friday, February 21, 1941

52nd Day—313 Days to Follow

Finished ironing a.m.
and Baked 3 pies.
Went to Bridge Club
P.m. Emma had
it at Shady Lawn Tea Room. We had a lot of fun.

Evening, went to church
to hear Cecelian
Chorus + (Mary Berg)
very good. not many there.

Quite cold and icy.

Saturday, February 22, 1941

53rd Day—312 Days to Follow

Washington's Birthday

Plowed all over house. Baked cake.
Drove home. Went to Tournament eve.
Campfield, Lovellville, & Poland won, but Poland won over D. Lima in an overtime. My, oh my, it was nerve-wracking.

It's been snowing
and blowing all day.
Cold and icy on roads where recommended him.

He seemed to think he could help if I gave him X-ray treatment
+ 6 kinds of medicine.
Doris' hands + elbows
are a mass of big pus pimples + his head
is raw + "weeping".

I could cry when I look at him. Hope Dr. can help him. Says he needs his tonsils out. Ruth went to

Paul Denton has S. I.

Beautiful sunshiny day. But snow snow everywhere. Gene says he isn't sick. His face is red but it doesn't show up anywhere else, so we're bright altho you can see it. Dr. said his temp. was only 99 + his tongue wasn't bad. His feeling pretty good. I put him in our room. Dad took in to Perry again today. Dave went to Girard as planned to play in Stron's band. (we aren't reported yet.) I don't feel very good so

Had 50 or so calls today. 200 Cover, Rev. Cornell, Mrs. Liddle, J. Fisher, Sophia, Monday, March 10, 1941 besides regular pres.

69th Day—296 Days to Follow

Snow melted just today. Sunshine all day. I didn't get up to get Dad's breakfast but at 8 the phone started ringing so I was at the phone about 9 when Dr. Patton + Mrs. Kenick came. Was I embarrassed? Not dressed yet. Gene's room not cleaned up, horse mess. —! Anyhow they sent Bob home from school and said Dad couldn't stay home go to work since he worked with Bob. So — the Bob went down to Henry Mc Jones in Struther, so Bob must stay in a crib. if he didn't

I am not doing much but taking care of Gene. Dad washed sheets, towels etc. This P.M. again. Wish I had more so I wouldn't run out so soon.

84th Day—281 Days to Follow

Colder. Snow on the ground this morning again. Went back up to the attic & scrubbed the floor. Am I ever glad to have that job done. Carl called & said Sara Hill has a "rash" today. Talked to Mrs. Hill & she says they had Dr. Yocum & Dr. Thomas & took her to Dr. Middleton & they all say it's 3 day measles, so Carl called Dr. Stewart & told him — well it's a mere. I'm sick of the whole business.

Wednesday, March 26, 1941

85th Day—280 Days to Follow

a bright sunny morning. Cold wind tho. Well things began popping early this am. Carl called early to say Dr. Patton was going to check upon these boys today, and he & the nurse did come about 11 a.m., said if the rest of the boys weren't peaking any more than Gene they'd probably take the signs down Friday. So we were real tickled & didn't ask any questions, except he said, "I suppose you've heard there's discussing of measles." Well then Mrs. Dutton called & said junior week's came down with a rash & Dr. McKay said let the fat say what it was and he called it "3 day measles" so at 3 a.m. the nurse came again took down the sign & gave us the release slip. — so — over

Thursday, March 27, 1941

86th Day—279 Days to Follow

Began cleaning our room today. Cleaned the wall paper & washed woodwork with lyeol. In the midst of it in the P. M. Dr. Stewart came. Was quite happy when he came in. He met him at the door. Seemed not to know anything about it. Asked who took the sign down & why. I told him I asked no questions. ^{after talking} about a 1/2 hr. he the family all came home, and "was everyone happy?" "I'll say!" - were just wondering if this means who. Pat, Chas decided it was "3 day measles" Haven't heard from Dr. Sturgis. Cash says this was "washed out" at medical meeting Tues. night.

Was a surprise. ^{He's} better. ^{all} share in my family's ^{love} for ^{the} ^{place}.

Friday, March 28, 1941

87th Day—278 Days to Follow

I washed all day long up until 5:30. Did regular wash. Then I've's things separately. Soaked all his in Clorox water. Had 8 quilts and 3 blankets etc. Glad it's all 'done now.

Dad varnished the wood work & floors in our room last night. So we got the rug down tonight & got back in there to sleep. So we're really back to normal now & thankful as can be.

229th Day—136 Days to Follow

We got started about 8:15. I've written a log of our trip elsewhere, so I'll only say we got to Front Royal about 6:30. Lovely day to ride. Nice cabin waiting for us.

Monday, August 18, 1941

230th Day—135 Days to Follow

We started on Skyline about 9 a. m. It surely is a beautiful drive. Weather was clear + grand to see out over the valley. Ate lunch
about 3200 ft. up.
Came to Natural
Bridges by 6:30.
Stayed at a place where Southern Hospitality was A-1. The sweetest southern lady.
"I do declare" it's all Natural Bridges was very impressive.
Glad we saw it by night.

340th Day—25 Days to Follow

Haven't written in here for 3 weeks. Little do we know from one day to the next what is ahead for us. It's probably better that we don't. This day, Sat. Dec. 6 - I was cleaning all a.m. + finishing + washing the kitchen floor at 1:30 P.M. when I got a phone call. It was Mrs. Gantz, so excited I could hardly understand her. "Your father, your mother was all I could make out. So, I went right down, they

344th Day—21 Days to Follow

Began snowing this morn. So of pretty cold.

Funeral was at 2:30 p.m. Mother collapsed after it was over at the Cemetery, but after she got home &
got some medicine & warmed up was better. Had an awful nervous
spell after she got home. It's so hard on her. She stood it better than I expected, tho.
