today so took her
to Mrs. P.M. Mother
went along.

Snowed 'em till 10:30. Began
snowing about 10.
One of those snowfalls
that are so beautiful,
so I walked down to Town Hall to meet
Dad at council.
Snow clung to everything and sparkled
under the lights.
It was so quiet
and peaceful. I wanted to keep that peace and

quiet.

Tuesday, March 3, 1942

62nd Day—303 Days to Follow

Froze all day. All there about 8 P.M.
It was still
snowing this morning and blowing
and drifting so
they sent the children
home from school
about 11 a.m. Wasn't cold but all the cars
were getting stuck.
Didn't quit
snowing till about 6 o'clock. Kids

Nice sunny day,
not too warm. I was up at Margi
early a.m. She feels awfully bad over Bill's going. Carl called at 9:30. + said to be ready at 10:30 + we'd go for a ride for the day.
That is scarce and he said he had none to cut up, so that it was a good time to get away.
Bob went down there. So Ruth + Shirley went with us.
We went to Vienna, watched a transport come in, then on to Lounshoff Park ate a naptime

Ironed all g.m.
Men came home at 12:30. Having Wed.
afternoons off from now on. Carl wanted to go over to a show to horse races. So I went much to my disgust. That's one place I detest, but I know he doesn't like to go alone. Ruth & Shirley went over to Hart's to spend the night but had a flare-up & Shirley came home so I went over & got Ruth (She had to stay with Big till Ruth & Bill came home.) Such a business. To bed at 12:30

Thursday, July 30, 1942

211th Day—154 Days to Follow

Warm today. Not too bad, tho' I went up to Mary's awhile
a.m. She's collecting antique dishes & what a selection she has. I picked a big pan full of beans from my V
garden. Also peas, a handful. About 12:30
I took the girls in town.
(Ruth still feeling pretty bad Got her a dress. Gabe & Edna (4:00) They went to a show, then, and I came home

nice cool day.
I finished ironing
at 11:30 a.m. Put clothes away, ran
the sweeper, and
went down home.
Stopped and talked
to Bowse on way
home. He says
Monday is coming
around awfully
fast.

Rested eve. I planned
girls, postponed
picnic we had planned to have Sat. nite, on account of Ann.

Saw Valeria tonight
she said only 20 girls working

Wednesday, August 5, 1942

217th Day—148 Days to Follow

nice cool day, again.
I worked in flower
garden all morning.
Don helped and we
got a lot of it cleared of weeds. Not much left there. Men came home from store at noon. Dad
wanted to work in yard (took down Tennis court fence)
so Betty ^{has say} persuaded me to go see Glenn Miller.
He was very good. Home at 6. Stopped down home.
Mrs. Garty mother died.
