Tyler the Mack “Truck” Bruising Linebacker / Homecoming Court Rep

By Bill Nicolls

Tyler Mack had an outstanding year at middle linebacker this past season. Although a sophomore, he showed enough of a skill set to start the early varsity games. Unfortunately, playing a bruising style of football left him a bit gassed for the Saturday morning JV game, so the varsity coach had him concentrate on that instead. Nothing could stop him except one thing; concussion protocol. He had to miss playing the final game of the season as a result.

On the brighter side, Tyler was named the sophomore representative for this year’s homecoming court and had his own spot in the parade. Big things are afoot for this young man on the move.

Congratulations, Crusher!

Annamarie Mack / Aerial Acrobat

By Bill Nicolls

She flies through the air with the greatest of ease!

That daring young cheerleader, Annamarie!

Anna has made the transition from dance acrobatics to cheerleading this year. She has been a standout as a “flyer” as she is small and lithe enough to be hoisted and launched into the sky. She hopes that there may be some “spotters” at the upcoming ing Turkey Bowl to help her perform her aerial act for halftime.

At the close of the football season, Anna was told that she would be named captain of the upcoming eighth grade basketball cheer squad.

Congratulations Anna!

Relaxing in Colorado

By Carol Kauffman

"Beware Nicolls' cuzzes and all who dare to take a dip in Bob and Kathy's pool - an alien lurks in the far corner...we don't know how dangerous it is but we advise everyone to be on the alert..." Just kidding. It's Cam Rumble relaxing in the warm waters - he likes to come prepared with custom goggles. Glad the 3rd cousins got a chance to meet last summer! (Delo girls and Rumble boys)

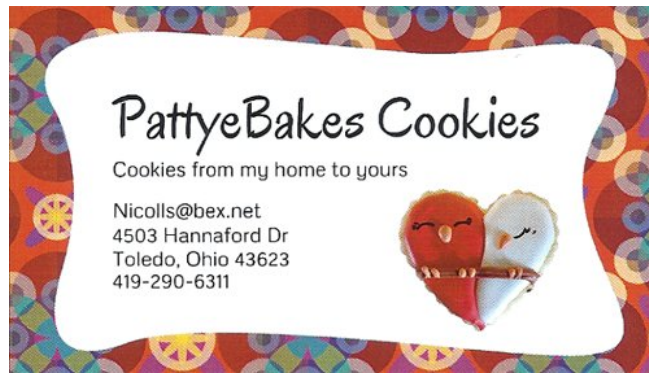

Thank You, From PattyBakes

Pattye would like to thank all the cousins who have ordered cookies the last couple of years for her charity donation to Good Grief of NW Ohio. It is an organization that gives special counseling to children who are dealing with the death of a loved one. She has raised close to $11,000.

That's a lot of cookie "dough"!

Out here on the slope

The skiing is dope.

I get my planks into the freshies.

I'm shredding the gnar, I'll traverse far.

I'll do sick licks and stomp my landing,

yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.

(Air guitar-Power chords)

No crud, nor any crust;

We only want a fresh dump!

Heather, take my hand, we'll bomb this powdered land.

You're lookin' steazy as we jib for some booters.

The slopes are all tracked out, there'll be some new pow, no doubt.

Let's finish up and knock back a couple brews now.

Monarch Mountain!

We're lovin' Monarch Mountain.

Monarch Mountain, oh, yeah

Monarch Mountain

We're now wasted!
