Small speeches.

No. 1.

1. Sauercrout is bully,
Sauercrout is fine,
I guess lots to know,
'cause I eats it all the time.

2. I pects it in the polonges, and I stumps it wiss my
feet,

and I stumps it, and I stumps its.

and that's what makes it good and sweet.

(When the word "stumps" is said, the child should stomp its feet.)

Mr. Fredrick set Toland Manor on fire in about 8:00
P.M. Thurs. Sept. 7
-16.

He said he intended to build twelve
houses there before
the next Saturday,
and he wanted the
brush burnt away.

The grass was dry and as there was a little wind, it spread easily; but Mr. Fredrick was made to beat it out himself.

There was no damage
done, and it was out
in half an hour.

Nevertheless, it produced quite a pro-
scare thru' the town.

Had Field meet.

May 5-1916.

Had a jolly good time. Went on a hay load.
