

Let's Talk Turkey

Fall 2009

The Insider

Oglebay By Ellen Nicolls

On Oct. 16 the annual Nicolls' reunion was held at Oglebay Park in Wheeling, W. Va. The highlight of the weekend was a tailgate luncheon party in the lavish suite provided by Beverly and Don. The only problem was the OSU football game wasn't on TV in Wheeling. Cindy and Bruce surprised everyone by coming and he provided a laptop computer account of the game. The family members who attended were Beverly, Don, Ellen, Gene, Beth, Marty, Mickey, Betty, Gayle, Jim, Cindy and Bruce. Saturday was filled with family news; talking about the Colorado Cousins Reunion; looking at pictures; walks; checking out the shops in the park; and eating. Saturday evening there were several challenging games of "99" played.

The family has been going to Oglebay twice a year since 1994. This year it was decided that the fall meeting would be the last one. Age, health, and distance were part of the decision. There will be many wonderful memories of the times the family spent together there.

The Nicolls Farm in New York

By Pattye Ann Nicolls

We were so inspired by Colorado (maybe it was sleeping in the barn that did it) that we came home and decided to start a little ranchette of our own. We built a 1000 sq ft barn, and found 2 horses to put in it. We bought 2 buggies, and some other horse drawn equipment. Right now we are getting ready to "process" 20 tom turkeys for Thanksgiving feasts, and have 75 hens laying eggs that we sell locally. We have quite the farm, and although it is a lot of work, it is a labor of love!

On The Run

On Saturday, November 7th, Regis Jesuit took 1st place at the Colorado State Cross Country Meet. Bob Nicolls is the coach and Danny Nicolls is their top runner. Danny lead his team by placing 3rd with a time of 15:56. Later that weekend Danny took off to Wisconsin for a recruiting visit. He is considering Oklahoma along with some other schools.

Bobby Nicolls is running cross country for the University of Oklahoma as a true freshman. In the last couple of racing, he has been OU's 7th man. His last race was the Big 12 Championship. His next race is November 14 at the Midwest Regional. OU is having a great year.

Danny Nicolls was third at the Colorado State Meet on November 7th and his team, Regis Jesuit, took 1st place.

Young Buck Commercials

Last year, the Young Bucks were outnumbered on the field. The Youngs were deadlocked with the Silvers until they recruited Nora "The Explorer" Teplan from Hungary. They are not going to do last minute recruiting this year. During Big Don's Bingo (prime time), the Young Bucks will be running some commercials to encourage people to join the Young Bucks.
